Ridgeview High School Football Coach and Team Receive State Accolades

Redmond, Ore – Ridgeview High School football coach Andy Coddling and several team members received state-wide recognition this week for their work in the 2013 season.

Head coach Andy Coddling was named Oregon 4A Football Coach of the Year for leading the state-championship team and for his commitment of time and support to the Ridgeview team. Seven Ridgeview Raven football team players were also recognized on the 4A All State Football Teams.

“Andy and his team prepared our kids for success by teaching them to focus how to do the little things right and not look past the step-by-step weekly goal,” shared Lee Loving, Ridgeview High School Principal. “What a wonderfully exhausting ride! We are proud to celebrate the hard work and achievement of our Head Coach and the whole Ridgeview Ravens Football Team!”

The following Ridgeview High School football team members were additionally recognized:

All State First Team - Offense

Boomer Fleming, senior, running back
Jack Bowman, senior, wide receiver
Reece Rollins, senior, tight end
Chris Steffey, sophomore, offensive lineman
Sam Hester, senior, offensive lineman

All State Second Team - Offense

Tim Lieberenz, senior, offensive lineman

All State Honorable Mention - Offense

Calvin Rodman, senior, kicker

All State First Team - Defense

Coleman Aamodt, senior, linebacker – Oregon 4A Defensive Player of the Year
Jack Bowman, senior, defensive back
Phelan Lund, senior, defensive lineman
George Mendazona, sophomore, defensive back
Sam Hester, senior defensive lineman

All State Second Team - Defense

Ty Hovey, senior, linebacker

Tim Lieberenz, senior, offensive lineman
